NOTICE

There are various apprehensions raised about the recently announced provisional list of candidates selected for various teaching and non-teaching posts. In this regard, the following is furnished for clearing the apprehensions and misconceptions among the public.

1. The selection process followed is very fair, transparent and objective. The vacancies advertised were provisional as already notified in the original advertisement. These vacancies were subject to changes owing to the Limited Departmental Examination/Opening of new Schools, etc.
2. Reservation exists for OBC, SC, ST categories; however rest of the vacancies is unreserved and is open to all. The candidates from the reserved categories qualifying on their own merit are accommodated in the list of unreserved candidates. Thus, it may so happen that candidates from a particular category appear more in number in the list than their fixed quota for the said category.
3. The short-listing of candidates for interview was done based on their performance in the written test and fulfilling of all eligibility criteria. However, a few candidates who were eligible as per the advertisement but could not be included in the list for want of certain details (such as CTET qualification), were allowed subsequently after they produced necessary details/proof. Mr. Deepak Sah and 10 more candidates were thus included in the list of candidates for interview later on.
